papers. Then I said: "Mr. Mayor, it seems to me to be a most unjustifiable set. Its only significance to me is that you do not want me any longer as Potlice Commissioner. You know I wanted to resign three months ago. I told you my conscience would not permit me to do the things you wanted me to do. If you wanted me to do. If you wanted me to about it in this unfair, cowardly, and ungentlemanly way. It was unjustifiable from any point of view. I want unjustifiable from any point of view. I want to add, in justification of the Mayor, that he did say he had acted unfairly in giving that letter to the newspapers. I told him a great deal more than I have stated here."

Mr. Buckner then read to Mr. Cropsey extracts from the Mayor's teatimony, in which the Mayor defield that Cropsey's system of appointments had anything to do with the Commissioner leaving the Police Department. Cropsey repudiated the Mayor's statement.

BROKERAGE FIRM SUSPENDS. S. R. Dew & Co., of Boston, Copp

Traders, Defunct.

Boston, Sept. N.—The suspension of S.
R. Dow & Co., a brokerage firm, was announced at the stock exchange at the opening to-day. The defunct firm made
a. specialty of copper stocks.

Stephen R. Dow, head of the company,
made an assignment in favor of F. M.
Williams and resigned as president and director of the various copper companies with which his name was connected. He has been succeeded in these offices by R. M. Edwards.

It was said that no exact estimate of the failed firm's liabilities could be made
until the books were examined.
